Alabama Gulf Coast Recovery Council releases Draft Restoration Project Information Sheet for 30-day public comment

Mobile - On Tuesday, October 8, 2013, the Alabama Gulf Coast Recovery Council (AGCRC) released its Draft Restoration Project Information Sheet for public comment. The 30-day public comment period will end on November 7, 2013.

“I am committed to restoring the Alabama Gulf Coast, and public input is an important part of this process,” Governor Robert Bentley said. “The Council is pleased to provide this Project Information Sheet to the public for comment. This is the next step in our long-term commitment to strengthen the Gulf Coast following the BP Deepwater Horizon explosion and oil spill.”

Once finalized, applicants who want to submit project suggestions will be asked to complete the information sheet online; however, special accommodations will be offered as necessary to those who may need special assistance.
